edition 1: how to tell if you
might be trans

Q: I've been having some thoughts and I feel like some of how trans people describe stuff matches my feelings, but not all of them, is there a possibility I'm trans?

A: Yes, you're trans. 100%. Very easy to tell from here.

Q: OK. so if I'm trans now what?

A: You don't have to do anything, being trans is a gift you give yourself. You can present however you want, there are no rules.

Actually, since I have your attention. A good first step after coming to the conclusion you're trans (or some other fun kind of gender non-conforming person), is to go look at a list of all possible labels for sexuality and gender identity (a good one if at https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List\_of\_gender\_identities go find anything that sounds fun and google memes for it to see if you like the vibe) and find 4-5 that seem to fit you and try them on.
